

DUFA-CALCIO GEL

Composition:

Contains per ml oral solution:

Calcium chloride dihydrate500 mg

Magnesium chloride hexahydrate80 mg

Indications:

Treatment of calcium and/or magnesium deficiencies in cattle.

Prevention of milk fever in cattle.

Contraindications:

None.

Dosage and administration:

For oral administration

Treatment of calcium and/or magnesium deficiencies:

- 500 ml 12 hours after intravenous therapy

Prevention of milk fever:

- 500 ml 12 hours prior to expected calving, followed by

- 500 ml immediately after calving, followed by

- 500 ml 12 hours after calving, followed by

- 500 ml 24 hours after calving

Side effects:

Reduced appetite or diarrhoea due to gastric irritation.

Precautions and warnings:

Do not administer in the absence of a swallowing reflex, to avoid accidental administration into the trachea and/or lungs.

Do not use in the absence of ruminal motility.

Withdrawal times:

None.

Storage conditions:

Store dark and below 25°C. Do not freeze.

Packing:

500 ml longneck bottles.